The First Signs of April: a Memoir

The First Signs of April is an inspirational memoir that will connect with anyone who has ever suffered from the loss of a loved one, as well as professionals in the helping field.

“By living and writing her truth, Briscoe shares her healing journey of loss and love. A compelling read that grabs your attention and will not let you leave.”

— PRISCILLA A. HUTCHINS, LICENSED PSYCHOLOGIST – DOCTORATE, RETIRED

Mary-Elizabeth Briscoe, LCMHC, CCTP was born in Schenectady and grew up in the Bellevue area of the city. She attended Schenectady public schools including two years at Mont Pleasant High School. She later worked for Northeast Parent and Child society as well as for Planned Parenthood of Northern New York in Schenectady.
