presents:

Kim van Alkemade

Thursday
Jan 11th
6:00PM

McChesney Room
-Central Library-

Kim van Alkemade was born in New York City and spent her childhood in suburban New Jersey. For many years, she was a professor at Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania where she taught writing. Her debut novel, ORPHAN #8, appeared on the New York Times bestseller list and has been translated into eleven languages. Her second novel, BACHELOR GIRL, was published in 2018. Her third historical novel, COUNTING LOST STARS, was inspired in part by her father's experiences in Nazi occupied Holland.
