The Vexing Heirloom

“The Vexing Heirloom is a lyrical, mystical journey through a Cuba the world has never seen before, but definitely should. Rich with mythology and magic, it’s an experience readers will not soon forget.”

—LEAH RHYNE, AUTHOR OF HEARTLESS

An epic of Cuba meets the classic hero’s journey in The Vexing Heirloom, an immersive adventure and fallen idealist’s quest for redemption.

T. G. Monahan received his B.A. from Rutgers University and his J.D. from Albany Law School. He is a former Judge Advocate officer in the U.S. Marine Corps and a veteran of the Iraq War. A native of Hawthorne, New Jersey, he now resides in Albany, New York with his son. This is his first novel.
